UNITED SERVICES AUTOMOBILE ASSOCIATION, a Foreign Corporation, Defendant. No. 345PA84. Supreme Court of North Carolina. June 4, 1985. James J. Gilmore, Edenton, for plaintiff. Tuggle, Duggins, Meschan, Thornton & Elrod, P.A. by Robert H. Elrod, Greensboro, for defendant. Per Curiam. Defendant's assignments of error related to the trial court's submission of the issue of punitive damages to the jury are overruled. In determining whether punitive damages should be awarded, the primary consideration is whether the defendant has acted with a state of mind characterized by willfulness, malice, or other culpable conduct. Moore v. Finch, 301 N.C. 235, 271 S.E.2d *287 425 (1980). The evidence must be sufficient to permit the inference that defendant's conduct was the result of a wilful, intentional act or omission or an entire want of care or concern. Id. Whether punitive damages should be awarded is ordinarily a question for the jury. If there is an absence of evidence tending to show defendant's wilful, wanton, or oppressive conduct, punitive damages may not be awarded. However, there may be situations in which the evidence is clear and leaves no room for reasonable differences of opinion by reasonable minds as to the conduct in question. In such situations, the question of punitive damages is for the court. Id. Assuming arguendo that the evidence is sufficient to find defendant's conduct was wilful, intentional, and reprehensible, nevertheless, the punitive damages award must be vacated because the trial court failed to submit to the jury the issue of whether defendant's conduct was attributable to defendant as its "employee, agent, or servant."
